

1st Newsletter for the 4th MASN Conference

Blaubeuren, Germany

7.-11. November 2007

Dear MASNers,

With our application form, we would like to give you some information on the 4th MASN Conference and the place where it will take place.

You might find the participation fee quite high compared to the previous conferences. As we are still doing our best to apply for money from different donators, we are not able to say how much money we will be able to receive. So the fee can only become cheaper! We will inform you as soon as we will get confirmation on further funding. We truly apologize for this, but this is the way things are...

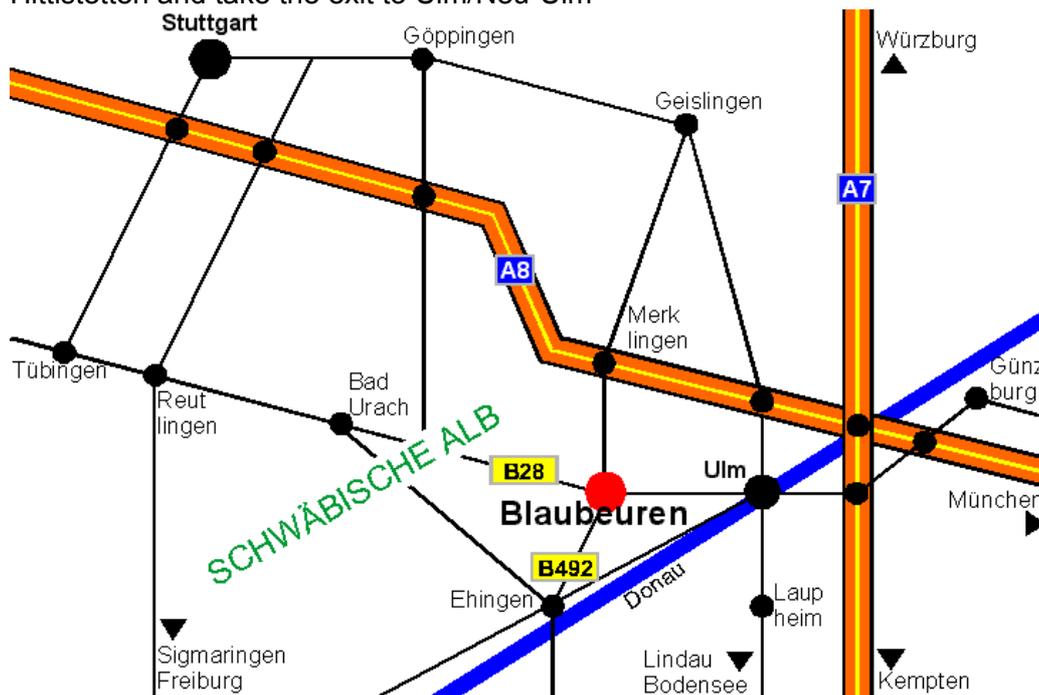

Following the tradition of our previous conferences, we have decided to let the conference take place in a smaller town, not far away from Tübingen, so we can concentrate on our work and each other.

So how can you get there?

BY CAR

- if you take the A8 from Munich or Stuttgart you have to leave the motorway at the exit "Merklingen" and follow the signs to Blaubeuren.
- if you come from Munich you can also get off the motorway at "Ulm-West", drive to Ulm and then also follow the signs to Blaubeuren (approx. 15 km road)
- coming from the motorway A7 you have to follow the signs to Ulm and then Blaubeuren. Coming from the north you can change to the A8 and then drive as described above, or if you come from the south you can get off at the junction Hittistetten and take the exit to Ulm/Neu-Ulm

BY PLANE

- There are couple of cheap airlines flying to Stuttgart or Munich, for example Germanwings, tuifly, et al. (for more have a look at our homepage, there you will find links to some others)
- from the airports you can take a train to Blaubeuren
- if you wish to come to Tübingen first, you can take the bus from the Airport Stuttgart to Tübingen (it is departing right in front of the Airport building, Terminal 1)
- if there are enough people who want to come to Tübingen first, we can organise a bustransfer to Blaubeuren (which would cost about 5€)

BY TRAIN

If you come by train via Munich or Stuttgart you have to change trains in Ulm and take the train to Blaubeuren from there.
